SECTION 1.1

God Is Truth

As you complete each section, check off the box. When all sections are done, sign off or have your child sign off just like you sign off on his or hers!

☐ Lesson Summary

Do you want to know what your child learned this week? Read this lesson summary and reflect on what you think about this topic!

God is truth — He speaks truth, and we can trust Him.

☐ Conversation Starter

Your child will ask you to share from your personal experience! These also appear in the kid's handbook Start Here activity each week.

You will be asked: "Can you name something that would be impossible to move? What makes it impossible?"

☐ Memory Verse

Are you curious what your child is memorizing this week? See if you can memorize the verse(s) too!

Jeremiah 10:10

But the LORD is the true God, He is the living God, and an everlasting King: at His wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide His indignation.

T&T Mission: Evidence of Grace

Coming Next Week ...

Section/Memory Verse: 1.2 — God Is All-Powerful/Jeremiah 10:12

Conversation Starter: Who is your favorite superhero or supervillain? Why is that one your favorite? If you could have one superpower, what would it be and why?

☐ Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

In Jeremiah 10:10, the Bible tells us that God is the true God. As a parent these words can bring you peace. Although you are in authority over your child, there is a higher authority (God) that is true and lasts forever, and that is good news. Our job as parents is to take our instruction from Him. This week as you face difficult moments, be encouraged that you can rely on God as the ultimate source of truth and authority.

☐ Make It Stick

Do you need a creative activity to help with memorizing verses? Read this suggested activity and look for a time this week when you can do this with your child!

Toss Across — Toss a beanbag back and forth with your child as you say the memory verse. Whoever has the beanbag should say one word of the verse. Start slow and see how fast you can do it.

Jeremiah 10:12

He hath made the earth by His power, He hath established the world by His wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by His discretion.

T&T Mission: Evidence of Grace

Coming Next Week ...

Section/Memory Verses: 1.3 — God Is Everywhere/Psalm 139:7-10

Conversation Starter: Tell me a story about a time when you were far away from home. How did it feel to be separated from friends and family?

☐ Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

In a world that feels out of control, it is helpful to remember that God is all-powerful. Jeremiah 10:12 tells us that it was by His power that God made the earth — His power is more than we could imagine, because He is and always will be all-powerful. As you go through your week, be encouraged that He is the same all-powerful God you can trust with your life and daily struggles too!

☐ Make It Stick

Do you need a creative activity to help with memorizing verses? Read this suggested activity and look for a time this week when you can do this with your child!

Sing-a-Long Verse — Before you start, set the words of the verse to a familiar tune. Then sing it together, and even serenade someone else with it to help get more practice.

☐ Lesson Summary

Do you want to know what your child learned this week? Read this lesson summary and reflect on what you think about this topic!

God is omnipresent — He is everywhere all at the same time.

☐ Conversation Starter

Your child will ask you to share from your personal experience! These also appear in the kid's handbook Start Here activity each week.

You will be asked: "Tell me a story about a time when you were far away from home. How did it feel to be separated from friends and family?"

☐ Memory Verse

Are you curious what your child is memorizing this week? See if you can memorize the verse(s) too!

Psalm 139:7-10

Whither shall I go from Thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from Thy presence? If I ascend up into heaven, Thou art there; if I make my bed in hell, behold, Thou art there. If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; even there shall Thy hand lead me, and Thy right hand shall hold me.

T&T Mission: Evidence of Grace

Coming Next Week ...

Section/Memory Verses: 1.4 — God Is All-Knowing/Psalm 139:1-3

Conversation Starter: Can you tell me something personal I may not know? It could be a favorite book or childhood memory. Or it could be something that makes you nervous, excited, or scared.

☐ Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

God is everywhere all the time! As parents we are faced with many human limitations (such as space and time) in how we can care for our kids. But God isn't faced with these limitations! He is always with you and your child, just like it says in Psalm 139:7-10! This week as you encounter various challenges, remember that God is always with you and your child as well!

☐ Make It Stick

Do you need a creative activity to help with memorizing verses? Read this suggested activity and look for a time this week when you can do this with your child!

Verses in Motion — With your child, create hand and/or body motions or facial expressions that represent key words in the verses. Do the motions or facial expressions as you repeat the verses aloud several times together.

Your child will ask you to share from your personal experience! These also appear in the kid's handbook Start Here activity each week.

You will be asked: "Can you tell me something personal I may not know? It could be a favorite book or childhood memory. Or it could be something that makes you nervous, excited, or scared."

☐ Memory Verse

Are you curious what your child is memorizing this week? See if you can memorize the verse(s) too!

Psalm 139:1-3

O LORD, Thou hast searched me, and known me. Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, Thou understandest my thought afar off. Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

T&T Mission: Evidence of Grace

Coming Next Week ...

Section/Memory Verse: 1.5 — God Is Three in One/2 Corinthians 13:14

Conversation Starter: How many titles or jobs can you come up with about yourself? Are you a mom, husband, artist, musician, or friend? What other titles can you come up with?

☐ Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

God knows you, and He knows your child! Psalm 139:1-3 makes it clear that He knows everything about us. Being aware of how much He knows, enables us to talk to Him about everything. As you entrust yourself to God this week, do so remembering that He knows you and your child completely, and you can talk to Him at all times!

☐ Make It Stick

Do you need a creative activity to help with memorizing verses? Read this suggested activity and look for a time this week when you can do this with your child!

Cover Up — Write the verses with its reference on a board or large piece of paper. Recite the verses aloud together several times and then cover a word with one or more sticky notes and recite the verses again. Then cover another word and recite the verses again. Repeat this pattern until all words are covered.

Section/Memory Verses: 1.6 — God Is ... Review/All Unit 1 Verses

Conversation Starter: What's something you have learned about God, and how has it helped you to remember this?

☐ Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

In the journey of parenting, we come to God with many different needs. One encouraging insight from 2 Corinthians 13:14 is that through the Trinity, God very specifically and uniquely meets the needs we have. This week tell God about your needs, and be encouraged that He is able to meet each one!

☐ Make It Stick

Do you need a creative activity to help with memorizing verses? Read this suggested activity and look for a time this week when you can do this with your child!

What's the Order? — Using note cards write one word or phrase from the verse per card. Lay the cards out so that your child can read the verse. Read it through a couple of times out loud together. Mix the cards up and let your child put the cards back in the correct order. Read the verse out loud again. Repeat several times and then try to repeat the verse without looking.

Conversation Starter: Describe the most important event that has happened in your life. When did the event happen? Who were the people involved? How did your life change because of this event?

☐ Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

As we learn more about who God is by studying His characteristics, we are able to grow in our trust, obedience, and love for Him. Read over the list of God's attributes listed in the Lesson Summary section this week, and be encouraged by all that He is and what that means for you!

Section/Memory Verse: 2.2 — Books of Wisdom/Proverbs 1:7

Conversation Starter: What was the best advice you ever had? What was the advice about? Who gave it to you?

☐ Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

In the middle of daily life, we can forget our purpose. When God speaks to Abram in Genesis 12:1-2, His words echo to us as well. We are blessed so that we can be a blessing to others. You as a parent are blessed so that you can bless others, including your child. Your child is blessed so that he or she can bless others as well. In a quiet moment during your week, think of how you can bless others with what you have been blessed with!

Section/Memory Verses: 2.3 — Books of Prophecy/Deuteronomy 18:18-19

Conversation Starter: If you could predict what will happen in the next year, what would you say? Will there be big changes, or will everything stay the same?

☐ Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

As Proverbs 1:7 reminds us, wisdom comes from fearing (obeying) God. It is challenging to teach kids to obey God, and to be diligent to obey Him in our own lives. However, the practice of obeying God lays a foundation to a wise life. This is something we want for our kids and for ourselves!

Section/Memory Verses: 2.4 — The Gospels/1 Corinthians 15:3-4

Conversation Starter: Can you tell me about something that happened to me that we both remember?

☐ Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

As we are reminded in Deuteronomy 18:18-19, God is very careful about delivering His words to His people in the middle of chaos. We can be so thankful God has given us His Word, the Bible, to speak to us in all the chaos we face. As you go through your week, think about what God is saying to you through His Word that speaks into your circumstances!

Conversation Starter: What is the best news you ever received? Who told you? What was the news? Whom did you share this good news with?

☐ Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

Everyone hopes for more and more good news, but in 1 Corinthians 15:3-4, we have not just good news, but the best news. Christ's death and resurrection are our tangible evidence that He has defeated the power of sin and death. In what ways can this best news speak into your circumstances this week?

Section/Memory Verse: 3.2 — Satan/Genesis 3:1

Conversation Starter: Did you ever create anything that got ruined? What was it? How was it ruined? How did you feel when it was ruined?

☐ Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

In Genesis 1:26, we find out that God made us in His image. We can uniquely reflect Him because we are made in His image! This week as you face challenging situations, think about how you can reflect God to those around you, including your child!

Section/Memory Verse: 3.3 — The Fall/Genesis 3:6

Conversation Starter: Can you tell me about a time when you got in trouble for doing something, and what was the consequence?

☐ Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

This week the kids are learning about how Satan is crafty and cunning, like Genesis 3:1 tells us, but also not nearly as powerful as God. This is a good reminder to us as well. We need to be vigilant and wary of the behavior that can erode our faith, but we can also trust in God who is the only being who is all-powerful. How can you stay vigilant and trust in God's power this week?

SECTION 4.8

Evidence Review

As you complete each section, check off the box. When all sections are done, sign off or have your child sign off just like you sign off on his or hers!

☐ Lesson Summary

Do you want to know what your child learned this week? Read this lesson summary and reflect on what you think about this topic!

Training: Faith, Prayer, Studying God's Word, Worship, Serving, Fellowship, Witnessing

☐ Conversation Starter

Your child will ask you to share from your personal experience! These also appear in the kid's handbook Start Here activity each week.

You will be asked: "What's the most helpful thing you do to grow in your relationship with God?"

☐ Memory Verse

Are you curious what your child is memorizing this week? See if you can memorize the verse(s) too!

Hebrews 11:6

1 John 5:14

2 Timothy 3:16-17

John 4:23-24

Matthew 20:28

Ephesians 4:1-3

Matthew 5:16

☐ Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

Your child has just finished learning about so much about God, the Bible, redemption, and ways to have an active faith. You have also been on a journey along with him or her, and it's time to celebrate what God is doing in your life. As you look back, what is the one insight that you want to take with you?
